TE DEUM

words: Traditional Canticle

music: Benjamin Britten (1913-1976)

We praise thee, O God; we acknowledge thee to be the Lord. All the earth doth worship thee, the Father everlasting. To thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein. To thee Cherubin and Seraphin continually do cry: Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Sabaoth; Heaven and earth are full of the majesty of thy glory. The glorious company of the apostles praise thee. The goodly fellowship of the prophets praise thee. The noble army of martyrs praise thee. The Holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge thee, the Father, of an infinite majesty, thine adorable, true, and only Son, also the Holy Ghost the Comforter.

Thou art the King of glory, O Christ. Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father. When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man, thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb. When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death, thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all believers. Thou sittest at the right hand of God, in the glory of the Father. We believe that thou shalt come to be our judge. We therefore pray thee, help thy servants, whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood. Make them to be numbered with thy saints, in glory everlasting, O Lord, save thy people and bless thine heritage; govern them and lift them up forever. Day by day we magnify thee, and we worship thy Name: ever world without end.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin. O Lord have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us. O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us as our trust is in thee. O Lord, in thee have I trusted, let me never be confounded.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ overcame death and opened to us the gate of everlasting life: Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of the Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The people sit.

THE FIRST LESSON

Isaiah 25:6-9

n this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear.

And he will destroy on this mountain
the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations;
he will swallow up death forever.

Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken.

It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us.
This is the Lord for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

THE PSALM

Psalm 118: 14-17, 22-24

Music: George Thalben-Ball (1896-1987)

Sung by the choir

The Lord is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation.

There is a sound of exultation and victory in the tents of the righteous:

"The right hand of the Lord has triumphed! the right hand of the Lord is exalted!
the right hand of the Lord has triumphed!"

I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord.

The same stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.

This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes.

On this day the Lord has acted; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

THE SECOND LESSON

Acts 10:34-43

Peter began to speak to Cornelius and the other Gentiles: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ--he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

THE GOSPEL LESSON

John 20:1-18

Priest

✠ The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.” Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus’ head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She said to them, “They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.” When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?” Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.” Jesus said to her, “Mary!” She turned and said to him in Hebrew, “Rabbouni!” (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, “Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’” Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord”; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

In peace, let us pray to the Lord, singing, “Lord, hear our prayer.”

Response to each petition

Lord, hear our prayer.

After the last petition

After the Collect

To you, O Lord our God. A - men.

For the holy Church of God, that it may be filled with truth and love, and be found without fault at the day of your coming, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For the peace of the world, that a spirit of respect and forbearance may grow among nations and peoples we pray to you, O Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For the poor, the persecuted, the sick, and all who suffer; for refugees, prisoners, and all who are in danger; that they may be relieved and protected, we pray to you, O Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For all who have commended themselves to our prayers; for our families, friends, and neighbors; that being freed from anxiety, they may live in joy, peace and health, we pray to you, O Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For all who have died in the communion of your Church, and those whose faith is known to you alone, that, with all the saints, they may have rest in that place where there is no pain or grief, but life eternal, we pray to you, O Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Rejoicing in the fellowship of all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life to Christ our God. To you, O Lord our God.

For yours is the majesty, O Father, Son and Holy Spirit; yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The people remain standing.

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The people greet one another in the name of the Lord.

THE SERVICE OF THE HOLY COMMUNION

The people sit for the offering.

THE OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Words: Thomas Kelley (1769-1855)

Music: Craig Phillips, 2014

The Lord is ris'n indeed; now is his work performed; now is the mighty captive freed, and death's strong castle stormed.
The Lord is ris'n indeed: then hell has lost his prey; with him is risen the ransomed seed to reign in endless day.
The Lord is ris'n indeed: he lives, to die no more; he lives, the sinner's cause to plead, whose curse and shame be bore.
The Lord is ris'n indeed: attending angels, hear! up to the courts of heav'n with speed the joyful tidings bear.
Then take your golden lyres and strike each cheerful chord; join, all the bright celestial choirs, to sing our risen Lord.
Alleluia!

 but Christ their le - gions hath dis - persed:
 he ris - es glo - rious from the dead:
 the bars from heaven's high por - tals fell;
 from death's dread sting thy serv - ants free,

the song of tri - umph has be - gun. Al - le - lu - ia!
 let shout of ho - ly joy out - burst. Al - le - lu - ia!
 all glo - ry to our ris - en Head! Al - le - lu - ia!
 let hymns of praise his tri - umphs tell! Al - le - lu - ia!
 that we may live and sing to thee. Al - le - lu - ia! [Ant.]

The people may stand or kneel.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

People We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant.

✠ Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
People Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The celebrant breaks the bread; a silence is kept.

ANTHEM AT THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Christ our Passover

Music: Craig Phillips

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

The choir sings the verse "Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us; therefore let us keep the feast," after which all repeat the refrain.

THE COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

All who seek God and are drawn to Christ are welcome at God's table. To receive the bread, hold out your hands for the wafer, then eat it. If you wish to sip wine from the chalice, help guide the chalice to your lips. Please do not intinct (dip) your wafer into the wine. If you do not want wine, stay at the communion rail and cross your arms over your chest and the chalice bearer will pause so you may participate prayerfully without sipping the wine. To receive a blessing only, cross your arms over your chest for a special blessing from the priest.

HYMN

Words: Charles Wesley (1707-1788)

Music: Ivy, Thomas Foster (1938-2024)

1. Love's re-deem-ing work is done, fought the fight, the bat-tle won.
 2. Lives a-gain, our glo-rious King; Where, O death, is now thy sting?
 3. Soar we now where Christ has led, fol-l'wing our ex-alt-ed Head;

Death in vain for-bids him rise; Christ has o-pen'd par-a-dise.
 Once he died our soul to save, where thy vic-to-ry, O grave?
 made like him, like him we rise, ours the cross, the grave, the skies.

ANTHEM

Words: Isaac Watts (1674-1748)

Music: Daniel Pinkham (1923-2006)

Alleluia. Now is the hour of darkness past; Christ hath assumed his reigning power.
Behold the great accuser cast Down from the skies, to rise no more. Alleluia.
'Twas by thy blood, immortal Lamb, Thine armies trod the tempter down;
'Twas by thy word and powerful name They gained the battle and renown: Alleluia.
Rejoice, ye heavens! let every star Shine with new glories round the sky!
while ye sing the heavenly war, Raise your Redeemer's name on high. Alleluia!

The people stand.

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

Presider Let us pray.

People Loving God, we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood. Now send us forth a people, forgiven, healed, renewed; that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

If Communion is to be sent out, it is done at this time.

Celebrant We send you forth bearing these holy gifts that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's Body and Blood.

People We who are many are one body because we all share one Bread and one Cup.

THE EASTER BLESSING

The celebrant blesses the people saying

May Almighty God, who has redeemed us and made us his children through the resurrection of his Son our Lord, bestow upon you the riches of his blessing, deliver you from sin into newness of life and make you holy and worthy to be united with Christ for ever. And the blessing of God Almighty, ☩ the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.
