

All Saints 'Beverly Hills
Minutes of the Meeting of the Vestry
March 23, 2021

Clergy: Janet Broderick, Michael Sahdev, Naomi Tutu

Staff: Hallie Foote, Michael Wilson

Vestry: Ted Dodd, Bill Lincoln, Lisa Holguin, Gary Roberts, Kevin Yoder, Gerrie Maloof, Lisa Schwab, John Tan, Lonnie Hinckley, Jeff Smith, Marissa Flaxbart, Lance Harding

Minutes: Marissa Flaxbart

Meeting was called to order at 6:32.

Janet opened the meeting with a prayer.

The Vestry approved the minutes of the February meeting.

Teaching: Janet introduced a plan for Vestry members to be empowered to be involved in the congregation in the ways that makes the best use of their passions and talents. (Vestry Orientation/Deployment). Gerrie Maloof was instrumental in creating this plan. Four general categories were laid out, and members are encouraged to discern where they might be called to put their energy (and to feel free to come up with new ministry ideas within these categories).

- Contact with the Outside World
- Grow in parish Family and Community
- Worship - Following the Holy Spirit
- Stewardship and Communications

Treasurer Bill Lincoln delivered a financial update.

John Tan gave an update on the search for a new administrative coordinator.

Lonnie Hinckley and Lisa Schwab gave an update on the Food Truck Outreach Ministry being done in conjunction with Good Shepherd.

Michael Wilson offered further details on current pledges and stewardship.

Janet and the Vestry discussed the Vestry Covenant Agreement.

We welcomed Naomi back! She gave updates on the Racial Justice, Pastoral Care, and Outreach ministries, as well as the church newsletter. Michael gave updates on youth and family ministries, confirmation group, baptisms, altar guild, newcomers, and other ministries.

Janet updated us on the Lenten virtual class offerings and future plans for the Wednesday class.

Warden's report: Ted Dodd encouraged the Vestry members to participate in as many activities around the church as possible, in order to make ourselves known and available to our parishioners. Considering attending services or classes you do not ordinarily attend, and visiting Zoom patios on Sunday.

Kevin Yoder gave an update from the Benevolence Fund Committee.

After Janet offered a closing prayer, the meeting was adjourned.

The next meeting will be April 27, 2021.
