and I will tell you what he has done for me.

Welcome Reception Today at noon at the Rectory

If you're new to All Saints' and would like to learn more about life here, please join us for a luncheon reception at the Rectory (Steve Huber's home), next door at 506 N. Camden Drive.

Lunch will be served, and you'll have the opportunity to meet clergy, staff and some of the people who consider All Saints' their church home.

Missa Mystica : Ascension Day Thursday, May 25 at 7:30 pm

Join us for a meditative opportunity to experience the mystery of God's presence in the Holy Eucharist amid the sacred sounds of some of the Christian tradition's most mystical mass settings.

The middle of May is often a busy time for individuals and families. Many of us have graduations to attend, and wedding season is on the horizon. With these milestones comes the promise of change.

This moment in the church season of Eastertide also brings with it the promise of change. The reality of change often brings with it uncertainty and sometimes trepidation. We hear Jesus foreshadowing the reality that he will one day rejoin his Father in heaven, and leave the disciples to their own devices. He promises to give them an Advocate, the Spirit of truth. He promises, "I will not leave you orphaned."

Often we come seeking God in the church to be assured of this promise. Empty nesters wonder what life will be like next. Graduates wonder, "will my hard work pay off?" As we age and move from one way of life to the next, we wonder how we can live life to the fullest in the next iteration of who we are. It helps to hear Jesus tell us we will not be alone, that the Creator of all things has our back and will be our capital-A Advocate.

That's what we come to celebrate together this morning: the Spirit of truth who guides us through the ever-changing reality of our lives. The one who sticks with us and never leaves us stranded in the sea-change.

Welcome to All Saints'.

The Reverend Allison English
Senior Associate Rector

Making a Life at All Saints': How to Get Involved

Wednesday, May 24 at 7:30 pm

If you're new to All Saints', or if you've been here for a while and feel you haven't yet really made a life here, these classes are a great way to connect! Offered as a series of five Wednesday night classes, "Making a Life at All Saints," is an experiential journey that will introduce you to Episcopal worship, provide a behind the scenes tour of our church and campus, share the exciting difference-making work we do in our community and the world, and introduce you to the many ways to get involved here. Along the way, you'll meet new people and develop a whole new understanding of what it means to be a part of this wonderful community.

May 24 is How to Get Involved – and how you can get connected to what's going on here.

Dinner is at 7:00 pm, Class begins at 7:30. There is no cost for dinner, but registration is required. Visit our website to register.
