HAPPENING TODAY

Small Group Sign-ups
on the patio all morning

Man must evolve for all human conflict a method
which rejects revenge,
aggression and retaliation.
The foundation of such a method is love.

Summer Documentary Film Series - "13th" Wednesday, August 30 at 7:00 pm

Our final summer documentary is "13th," Ava DuVernay's extraordinary and galvanizing film about race and injustice in America. After the horrific events in Charlottesville, we are reminded that hatred, bigotry and racism all exist in our culture. Join us to face these issues and begin a conversation about how we can effect change.

The event is free of charge. Bring your friends to Watch, Learn, Question, Act. A movie trailer of "13th" can be seen on our website at www.allsaintsbh.org.

Laundry Love Wednesday, August 30 at 6:30 pm

Join us on our next trip to Laundry Love!

Laundry Love is a nationwide movement that provides access to free laundry service for those in need. For this outing, we'll be visiting the Laundry Love chapter in East Hollywood, drawing upon our rich ministry of food hospitality to bring a meal to those who have come out on a weeknight to do their laundry. To learn more and sign up, visit our website at www.allsaintsbh.org, or contact Jay Traynor at jaytraynor@aol.com.

welcome

“And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good worksencouraging one another” –Hebrews 10:24–25

I would like to welcome you all to All Saints’ this Sunday. This is often a slightly unsettled time of year—it is for me! It is the end of summer, but not quite; autumn is almost upon us, but not quite! Some of us are visiting here, some are still on summer holidays, some of us have just returned home after holidays away, and for some of us, summer is already an increasingly vague memory and children are already back at school. Every one of us has a very different perspective and our view of summer is only one example of this. However, each week we come together to worship in community, to be a part of the body of Christ.

We strive to make everybody feel welcome on Sunday—whether you are visiting us or have been a parishioner for many years. There are parishioners on the patio each week to help answer questions you may have, from giving directions to talking about what goes on in the church each week. They help people make connections to others and to the many different ways to get involved.

While Sunday is our primary day of gathering to worship in community, there are many other ways to get to know each other and to continue to explore what our faith means to us. One of the exciting ways to do this is to join one of the 20 Small Groups that are starting in September. They are being held on different days and locations and we hope there is one that will be a good fit for you.

Today on the patio you can explore the offerings and speak to some of the conveners, who will be happy to answer your questions. Or, you can read about the groups on our website, www.allsaintsbh.org/smallgroups. I urge you to consider joining one of these groups.

📖 HIGHLIGHTS

SAGES Luncheon

Thursday, September 14 at Noon

SAGES, our ministry for individuals 55 and over, kicks off its new season of lunch, fellowship and interesting presentations. Plan to join us this every 2nd and 4th Thursday of the month, and bring along your friends. RSVP to Reverend Nat Katz at nkatz@allsaintsbh.org.

Blessing of the Back Packs/ Family Cookout and Pool Party

Sunday, September 10.

Pool Party begins at 12:30 pm

Join us to celebrate the end of summer and the beginning of our program year! All young people (ages 4 and over) are invited to bring their backpacks to church—both the 10 am and AS2 services—for a blessing at the start of the school year. Kids will attend church with their families—no classes today. Classes start the following Sunday, September 17.

Following worship on September 10, help us close out summer with the annual Family Cookout and Pool Party next door at the Rectory. Parents and kids are welcome! Contact Karlyn Johnson for more information at kjohnson@allsaintsbh.org.

Youth & Family Ministries at All Saints’

Growing up in church is almost unheard of these days. Almost. It is definitely NOT the “norm” here on the west side of Los Angeles and yet, we see the rewards of children who are growing up (or have grown up) in church every day. We see how continued exposure to scripture, prayer, community, love, grace and forgiveness effects their decision making, their leadership potential and their interactions with their peers. It affects their faith and the way they engage in the world. Growing up in church is a gift. It is a gift that we at All Saints’ Beverly Hills are thrilled to be able to share with families and children of all ages.

Children and youth are the life’s blood of this church community. They’re the energy and effervescence of God’s love.

All Saints’ values children, celebrating their uniqueness and teaching them that they are unconditionally loved. We welcome families of all sizes, ages, descriptions and configurations to worship, pray, play and grow at All Saints’. We do this together through a variety of ways, at the heart of which is spiritual formation – we offer children and youth Christian education programs through age 18. Partnering with young people on their journey to adulthood is the primary focus of this ministry. Our goal is to plant seeds of faith that will nurture and sustain them—to root our young people in a Christ-centered life.

The journey begins in Tiny Church, a low threshold, soft start for our littlest saints. Children transition to become Explorers at age 3. Explorers use the Godly Play curriculum to “explore their faith through story, to gain religious language and to enhance their spiritual experience through wonder and play.”

Young people enter the NEST – Next Exciting Steps for Tweens – in grade 4. Using the Waving God’s Promises curriculum, the NEST exposes tweens to spiritual lives outside of themselves – how do they see the world around them? How do they respond to that world in their own circles of family, school and church?

CAST – the Community of All Saints’ Teens – is for young people from Grades 7 through 12. We use a unique, dynamic curriculum written by volunteer youth leaders, and a host of teen-oriented activities and events designed to help them learn more about themselves, the world and how to spread the love of God.
