THE MINISTRY OF LAY PERSONS IS TO REPRESENT CHRIST AND HIS CHURCH

Yesterday evening we celebrated the feast of the Epiphany here at All Saints’. We had the opportunity as a parish to together celebrate the revelation of Christ’s incarnation to the entire world. And to add to the feast, we honored Steve Huber’s seven years as rector at All Saints’.

Today, as we prepare for Steve’s retirement next week, we also celebrate the sacrament of baptism. At the heart of baptism is a reminder that by the power of the Holy Spirit you and I—each of us—when we are baptized in the church, are not only members of the church, but ministers. That’s right—priests, deacons, bishops, AND you, lay people, are ministers of the church.

The weeks and months to come will give you as a parish community an opportunity to truly own your baptismal ministry. What exactly is the ministry of the laity in the church? The prayer book tells us this:

The ministry of lay persons is to represent Christ and his Church; to bear witness to him wherever they may be; and, according to the gifts given them, to carry on Christ’s work of reconciliation in the world; and to take their place in the life, worship, and governance of the Church.

Book of Common Prayer, p. 855

The work of discerning our next rector is vital and important to the future of our parish. But so is living with integrity our respective roles as ministers in the church. While your bishop, your priests, your deacon each have our respective roles, you also have a job to do! How might you as lay people represent Christ as we move through this time? How do you bear witness to the heart of Christ when you are outside the walls of the physical church building? How are you working to forgive and be forgiven? And, at such a time as this, how might you—both confidence and humility—take your place in the life, worship, and governance of All Saints’, Beverly Hills?

This is what your baptism is all about. So let’s celebrate as fellow ministers of our baptism.

Welcome to All Saints’.

Blessings,
The Reverend Allison English
Senior Associate Rector

Last time we hosted this party, over 200 teens were our guests! Please help us throw an amazing party for the senior high youth of Los Angeles. We need adult volunteers from the parish from 3:00 –11:45 pm. Please sign up at the Family Ministries table or online at http://bit.ly/2lRJrHr and see where you can help. Not only is this a fun night for teens, but it is a fun night for the adult volunteers as well. It takes lots of hands and talent to turn the parish hall into a Winter Wonderland. Hope you can join us and walk the white carpet!!!!
