HAPPENING TODAY

Choral Evensong for Epiphany

Humans are amphibians—half spirit and half animal. As spirits they belong to the eternal world, but as animals they inhabit time.

-C. S. Lewis
welcome

Last week, a friend posted a selfie on his Instagram account. The photo featured him in his workout clothes with a row of empty treadmills behind him. His comment, “I guess the New Year’s rush is over.”

The image indicates that the resolve of the New Year often takes a precipitous fall just weeks from its making. Among Christians, the season of Lent comes soon after the undoing of the resolutions with the hope of new resolutions taking the form of “Lenten disciplines.”

We still have a few weeks until Ash Wednesday comes and the season of Lent begins. Today and next week, Small Group conveners at All Saints’ will be on the patio with a number of ways for you to commit to a season of resolve and growth with the support of others in the church. Whether you want to explore the life of Jesus through art, go on a dedicated walk or hike weekly, get back to the basics of Christianity, dig deep into training for social action or pastoral care, or take steps to achieve your life goals — All Saints’ has a small group offering for you. At least one small group meets on every day of the week, at a variety of times.

Make a resolve in 2018 to enrich your life in community here at All Saints’. Through the formation of small groups, we will seek to engage the entire All Saints’ community in Spirit-led, intentional faith explorations that result in transformed lives.

I hope you’ll join us. Find out more on the patio today or at www.allsaintsbh.org/smallgroups.

Welcome to All Saints’,

SUNGLASSES FOR HONDURAS
Sundays on the patio through February 18
Our Medical Mission Team will travel to Honduras on March 2 for our 18th medical mission. For the second year in a row, we will also have an eye clinic, providing vision care and corrective glasses to hundreds of clinic visitors. Our goal is to provide a pair of sunglasses to every person who visits the clinic, and only YOU can help us do that. Bring us your unused (non-prescriptive) sunglasses, and drop them off in the Eyeglass Bin on Sundays (or visit Amazon.com and get a great deal on inexpensive, UV protective glasses). The sun shines bright in Honduras, and we were stunned at how few of our visitors have sunglasses. It’s a simple gift that can make a big different in their eye health. For more information, contact Debbie Gauer at dgauer@allsaintsbh.org.

WHAT IS CHRISTIAN ART?
Wednesday, February 7 at 7:00 pm

This one-night course will explore a number of themes: What exactly makes some art Christian? How has Christian art evolved over time? What have been the purposes of Christian art? What are some of the connections between art, culture, and spirituality that Christian art reveals? Let by parishioner Charles Foster, this course will explore art in four main traditions: European, African American, Mexican, and Central African. This class serves as a helpful introduction to a small group exploring Jesus through scripture and art that will meet at the same time starting in Lent. And we’ll do it all in 90 breathless minutes. RSVP online at www.allsaintsbh.org/calendar/what-is-christian-art
