SPRING CONCERT
Friday, March 9 at 8:00 pm
Music of Duruflé and Fauré

All Saints’ Choir sings masterworks of the two beloved French composers, including Duruflé’s hauntingly beautiful Requiem, in the version for chorus and chamber orchestra.

GET ON THE BUS – BEARS AND BACKPACKS
Sunday, March 11 on the Patio

Once again, All Saints’ will escort children to visit their mothers in prison at the Corona Institute for Women.

There are two ways you can make this day even more special – stop by the patio table and purchase a teddy bear, or select a child’s name, pick up a backpack and fill it with art supplies and small toys to make the long bus ride more enjoyable. For more information, contact Josh Paget at jpaget@allsaintsbh.org.

SAGES PRESENTS:
THE THURSDAY LUNCH
Thursday, March 8 at Noon

Join us for lunch and a presentation by our friend, the Reverend Mark Hallahan. Mark returns to All Saints’ to offer reflections on the rich spiritual heritage that has been passed down through the Celtic Christian tradition. Lunch is $10. Please RSVP to Debbie Winchell at 310/275-0123.

We must be willing to get rid of the life we’ve planned, so as to have the life that is waiting for us. The old skin has to be shed before the new one can come.

-Joseph Campbell
From our new Interim Rector...

On behalf of my wife, Valerie, I write with enthusiasm as we join you in Beverly Hills for the interim period at All Saints’ Church. I extend gratitude for the hospitality of the wardens, vestry, the clergy, the staff and other lay leaders. Person by person and bit by bit I am piecing together the joyful collage of this parish. I look forward to meeting and getting to know you.

I also write on behalf of the parish to welcome you this morning. As you may know, the church is mid-way through Lent and today we hear the sobering story of Jesus turning over the tables of the money-changers in the Temple at Jerusalem. Jesus was upset that crass, self-serving commercial enterprise had taken over the focus of worship and concern for the neighbor. Like scalpers outside the Rose Bowl, they were gouging worshippers in an approving Temple practice. In response, Jesus “cleansed” the Temple.

As the last sheep exited through the temple gate, perhaps as the last coin stopped rolling, and the final table was flipped, an embarrassed and chastened crowd fell silent.

What tables would Jesus find necessary to flip in our own day? In Jesus’ journey to the cross and beyond to resurrection, the ultimate table would be flipped: the table of death. Jesus himself would become the new Temple, and would invite his followers to offer in an answering love a generous measure of radical hospitality and table-welcoming to all.

We extend that welcome to you this morning. We hope you find a warmth of hospitality and a sincere spirit of inclusion to our table of blessing, the holy meal of Christ, who holds out his loving hands and heart to all.

Bob Dannals
Interim Rector

MINISTRY CONNECTION
Are you looking to deepen your connection to the community at All Saints? Visit the Ministry Connection Table to meet members of different ministries at All Saints’ and learn about their experience serving our community. This week we have representatives from the LGBT Youth Center Brunch and Laundry Love ministries sharing on the patio.

VOLUNTEER AT THE MONDAY MEAL
On Monday mornings, a dedicated, caring group of volunteers arrive at the church to help set up the dining hall, sort donations, prep food, and cook a meal. This time of preparation ensures that the Monday Meal is a calm and welcoming space for our guests. It also ensures that we are good stewards of our received donations. You can volunteer for just two hours in the morning and make a big difference. If you would like to join this group, please contact jpaget@allsaintsbh.org.

SUNDAY, March 18
The LA Marathon will take place the morning of Sunday, March 18, resulting in street closures throughout the City. As in years past, we will hold two worship services that day, one at 10:00 am for those who can make it to church, and another at 5:00 pm after the streets re-open.

* Would you like to request a Tribute in All Saints’ Life? Please contact eladizinsky@allsaintsbh.org.
