HAPPENING TODAY
Youth Vestry Meeting
Today at 11:30 am

In this world it is not what we take up, but what we give up, that makes us rich.
-Henry Ward Beecher
I got the call that my beloved step mother, Maureen, was in the hospital and the doctors said to come to England right away. It was one of those times in my life when I felt peaceful clarity about what to do.

I ask for the Grace to trust myself totally to God’s love.

Every day since I arrived, I’ve gone to see her in West Cornwall Hospital. Maureen has dementia and she fell on her head, knocking out 45 years of recent memory. She doesn’t remember my father, her home or me, even when I show her photographs.

One day I stood watching a toddler playing with the family’s spaniel in the park I walk through on my way home. The boy and dog ended up running and jumping in a gorgeous mud puddle. I started to laugh and was joined in by an older woman who appeared seemingly from nowhere right next to me. We started talking about little boys, which led me to talking about my son, which led her to ask where I was from, which led her to why was I here in Penzance, which led me to explain about my stepmom’s condition, which led me to release the tears that had been building up the last few days. She hugged me and we continued our walk, now arm in arm. At her bidding I told her the story of how my father and Maureen had met, married and lived in the States, until he retired and they moved to her hometown in Cornwall. “Oh, what a beautiful love story!” she said. At the end of the park we introduced ourselves, hugged and waved goodbye.

I ask for the Grace to trust myself totally to God’s love.

I look for the positive in all situations and in all people. I react with love and lead with service. I repeat these phrases throughout the days. And knowing God is with me and within me, I meet angels appearing seemingly out of nowhere.

Welcome to All Saints’.

LGBT YOUTH CENTER BRUNCH

Saturday, April 28 at 11:30 am

Join us at the LGBT Youth Center at 11:30 am to help serve brunch to our homeless LGBT youth. It’s a great way to connect with these young people to feed their bodies and their spirits. To help prep or serve, contact Kyle Kim-Hays at k2hays@gmail.com.

CARDS & CANS

Support our ministries by bringing in Mother’s Day cards and cans! Greeting cards are a crucial part of All Saints’ jail ministry. For the local food pantry and our Monday Meal, this month we are asking for canned tomatoes: ground, crushed, diced, paste or sauce, any kind of tomatoes will work! Contact Josh Paget for more details at JPaget@allsaintsbh.org.
WARDEN v. WARDEN BUCKET CHALLENGE
Rich v. Nichols: The “Big Money” Face Off
Did you know that as part of the teens’ fundraiser on Sunday, April 29, our Youth Vestry Senior Warden has challenged our Adult Vestry Senior Warden to the annual Warden v. Warden Bucket Challenge? The day of the fair, the wardens will collect funds in buckets on the patio and whoever has the most money in their bucket at the end of the fair gets to dunk the other warden. Who will you support? ASBH Youth Vestry Sr. Warden, David “Money Bags” Rich? Or Sydney “Spare Change” Nichols? Come to the fair next Sunday and see who gets dunked!
