CAST End-of-the-Year Party

M y current binge-worthy show on Netflix right now is called "Dear White People." The show is a continuation of the fantastic dramedy film about racial tensions at a prestigious Ivy League school. Sam, a black student at the predominantly white school, runs a radio program where she calls out racist acts at the seemingly progressive school. It’s one of those great shows that use the serious tension between people to create hilarious moments of insight.

Being gay, acts of hatred and prejudice are woven into my own story, but what strikes me about “Dear White People” is how other hateful actions can take such a different shape toward other communities. Even in my own LGBT community, my experiences here in southern California seem profoundly different than the experiences friends have had growing up in the south.

This weekend is Los Angeles Pride and this month is Pride Month, which commemorates the 1969 Stonewall riots in Manhattan. I think one thing All Saints’ is good at is finding our commonalities, and that’s a mighty thing. This Pride Month though, I encourage you to also celebrate what we don’t have in common. Take a look at your friends, your family, and especially the people who challenge you and try to learn how their own unique experiences, different from yours, contribute to God’s great gift of humanity.

Embrace, even love the difference, don’t try to change or diminish it, and never forget God’s message for us all, “Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine.” - Isaiah 43:1

I encourage you all to celebrate with me this month.

Welcome to All Saints’ and Happy Pride!

CAMP CAMDEN BEGINS
Sunday, June 24 at 9:45 am
Kids from ages 4 to 12 are invited to participate in our summer program, Camp Camden.

This year the theme is “Passport to Christianity Around the World.” We will be traveling with our “passports” to the far corners of the globe to visit different countries (in Upper Sweetland Hall)!

Each Sunday, we will climb aboard a train, plane or boat and arrive somewhere new. Through bible verses and Christian concepts of tolerance, inclusion and compassion, we will explore different customs, music and feast days, practice a word or two in a new language, do a craft, and fill our passports with stamps and stickers.

MAKE YOUR PLEDGE FOR 2018

One consistent theme of Christian spirituality is the generosity of God. Built into the very essence of creation, when we receive God’s bounty we want to share the goodness with others.

The Jordan River meanders along Israel and Palestine, connecting with the Sea of Galilee and the Dead Sea. It flows both into and out of the beautiful and vibrant Sea of Galilee — inflow and outflow, receiving and giving. The Dead Sea has no outlet; it only receives and dies in its suffocation. The human spirit, just like the seas, needs both inflow and outflow, receiving and giving.

This is our heritage at All Saints’. For generations, our parishioners have experienced the bounty of a generous God. And in an answering love, those same parishioners learned the life-giving practice of grateful giving. We stand at the precipice of new chapters, with the calling of a new rector and living into a needed period of growth for our congregation.

I ask you to prayerfully consider making a pledge to our parish for 2018. We need everyone to help close the gap. Every dime you give is well-spent — to advance the strategic values and goals of this parish. The staff is frugal and careful. The Vestry exercises the utmost fiscal responsibility and oversight. Every amount is needed.

This comes with our prayers and sincere thankfulness.

Make your pledge today online at www.allsaintsbh.org/give or with the included pledge card.
