WELCOME
Welcome to worship at All Saints’ on this Labor Day weekend.
How privileged I feel to be a leader of music and worship in this place! During this time in which our church organ is undergoing a renovation/restoration project, I’ve had a heightened sense of just what a singing congregation we have. It’s truly a joy to listen to your voices raised in praise, in singing the hymns and service music each Sunday, and during these past several weeks, all of you, along with the choir have truly taken the lead! And, how fortunate we are to have this wonderful, reverberant space in which to be able to worship together.

As the summer begins to draw to a close, and we look to the fall, I’m also reminded that many of you in the congregation have strong and beautiful voices. I’d like to ask you to consider lending your voice to one of our choirs, as we’ll begin regular rehearsals again soon (you can read more about them, as well as how to join, on the All Saints’ website). Whether you are new to All Saints’ or a longtime member, young or old, whether a highly skilled musician or just someone with a love of singing, we likely have a place for you!
Again, welcome to All Saints’ as we gather to worship God in the beauty of holiness.

Director of Music
