Lift Every Voice

What does it mean for us to follow in the way of the Gospel? Insofar as each of us has a measure of influence every day, how do we exercise that energy and emotion, imitating Christ and building up God’s people?

As individuals and as a part of a congregation, do we use whatever influence we have to build up or to tear down? Do we use our energy to encourage, affirm and nourish, or to control, restrict and debilitate?

If we have authority over others as employers, teachers, supervisors, parents, grandparents, priests or physicians, what characterizes our authority? Harshness or perhaps worse, apathy? Or patience, support and seeking the best in others? When correction or rehabilitation are needed, do we do so out of a spirit of love or simply impose our will? How readily do we forgive those for whom we are responsible and encourage them to start afresh?

Today we celebrate the life and ministry of one who has lived to build up, to encourage, to support, to affirm, to forgive, to teach, to form, to lift every voice and sing. We applaud the witness and example of one who has spent his considerable talents seeking the best in others and to do this work with humility and respect.

Today, we celebrate the 30th anniversary of Dr. Craig Phillips as Director of Music, Choir Master, and Organist at All Saints’ Church. His extraordinary gifts, which he has shared lavishly with dedicated choirs and appreciative congregations, has made a huge impact on the life of this parish and beyond.

As we conclude the Season after Pentecost and turn the corner on Thanksgiving and the beginning of Advent, we pause today to offer special music and provide a celebration gathering in honor of Craig Phillips.

We extend a warm welcome to all. Join us in word, in music, in Eucharist, and following the 10:00 am service, a reception in Lower Sweetland Hall.

Bob Dannals
Interim Rector
