REST: The Valley of Dry Bones (Ezekiel 37:1-14)

Now, more than ever, we need to make REST part of our lives.

Our Society has become compulsive about work. We work longer hours, longer days. We have forgotten one of the last century’s major victories was, for most people, the forty hour work week, forgotten when the more affluent among us would take the summer off and retire to a house in the woods, mountains, seashore, or lakeside.

We don’t see the poor among us, working the long hours of 2 or 3 low paying jobs.

Work fills up our lives. We wonder why we are so tired. We never ask why there is now a caffeine dispensing retailer on every other corner, serving long lines of customers.

Our work compulsion is now so strong, that to many, rest seems like death. If I stop I will be lost. And as we all know, death is to be avoided at all costs. So it is vital to become aware that not rest, but constant work is the Valley of the Dry Bones. In truth if I never rest, I will be lost.

The Christian tradition inherited and retains a spiritual practice of Rest whose name is Sabbath. The command to keep the Sabbath holy is a gift to remind us that we are beloved of God and therefore it is safe to take a break.

The Church’s invites all of us to Sabbath, to rest in Christ, to rest with God, and with each other.

CURSILLO INFORMATION SESSIONS
Today after the 10 am and 11:30 am services

There will be two information sessions offered for Cursillo—at 11:30 in Upper Sweetland following the 10 am service and in the Chapel immediately following AS2.

Cursillo is an immersive retreat offering “a short course in Christianity” for people who are active followers of Jesus, already involved in the works of Christian faith. It allows participants to spend time in a loving Christian community while focusing on their relationship to God. It’s fun and, for most people, quite moving. This year, Cursillo is being offered in our diocese the weekend of October 3-6. Cursillo organizer Colin Stewart will offer two sessions with more information for those interested in learning more.

* Do you get our weekly emails? Digital copies of the bulletin and other important information are delivered right to your mailbox weekly. Visit www.allsaintsbh.org/churchwidesignup/
