Welcome to All Saints’! On this festive Day of Pentecost, it is our joy and delight to welcome you to this place of faith, hope, and love.

So many elements are signs of the Holy Spirit this day: baptisms, a parish-wide potluck, and a dramatic reading of many languages symbolizing the power of the original Day of Pentecost!

Yet the Holy Spirit is still a mysterious thing. Two weeks ago, I wrote about how one way the Church throughout the centuries has envisioned the Holy Spirit was as the Love between God the Creator (or “Father”) and God the Son (or “The Word”). Love is certainty in the air this day as we celebrate these events and others (for instance, just blocks away this morning is the annual Los Angeles Pride Parade).

And yet sometimes the Holy Spirit is a bit more mysterious, a bit less obvious. My favorite image of this third person of the Trinity comes a bit later in John’s Gospel from what we hear this morning. Jesus says, “I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth.” (John 16:12-13). These powerful words are no less relevant today as they were way back when on the Day of Pentecost itself: Love is the power of Holy Spirit and it continues to push ALL of us into ALL truth.

We here at All Saints’ take that call to love all seriously. And we do so because we have first been met by this same Love. And that is very good news, indeed!

We’re so glad you’ve come to meet Love with us. Welcome!

Will Stanley
Associate Rector
